MINUTE NO. 07-48
OLD/NEW BUSINESS

DISCUSSION OF THE APRIL 20, 2007 FIGHT IN MERRILLVILLE, INDIANA

The Commission expressed concerns about the promoter's name on the insurance coverage for boxing events is not the same as the name listed on the fight permit. Octavius James explained that Artez Aytch is the Promoter approved for the entity named One in a Million. He further explained that he would ensure that the name appeared on both the insurance coverage and the fight permit.

The Commission expressed concerns with the boxing staff holding a large amount of cash at each boxing event. They requested that Mr. James pay his contestants with a check and to obtain a surety bond to cover the amount of the purse when compensating his contestants by check. Mr. James informed the Commission that he would comply with their request and further informed them that his agency currently holds a million dollar performance bond.

DISCUSSION OF THE ASSOCIATION OF BOXING COMMISSION (ABC) TRAINING FOR OFFICIALS

Larry Harvey, Director of Boxing Compliance informed the Commission that a date for the training has not yet been confirmed. He also informed them that the approximate cost of the training session would be about $2,000 without the hotel and travel expenses of the trainers. He also expressed concerns about the holding of the monies collected for the training session. He suggested that the Commission may want to consider designating this duty to a commission member.

CLOSE CIRCUIT TELEVISION BOXING EVENT ON MAY 5, 2007

The Commission expressed concerns with collecting the 5% tax from clubs and/or casinos that may be airing the show. The suggested that the staff send out letters to remind these owners of the statute requirement to the 5% tax that is due if they choose to air this event.

MINUTE NO. 07-49 ADJOURNMENT

There being no further business to discuss, the meeting adjourned at 9:50 a.m.
